From the Altar to the Streets Cabrini and the Mission of the Eucharistic Pilgrimage

At the heart of the Eucharistic Pilgrimage is a simple truth: Christ meets us at the altar so that we may carry Him into the streets through lives of service, mercy, and love - and through that witness draw the world back to Himself.

As our nation marks the 250th anniversary of its founding, the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage offers a powerful moment to rediscover this truth. Under the theme One Nation Under God, it invites Americans to reflect on a deeper source of unity rooted not in politics or geography, but in faith lived through service, sacrifice, and love of neighbor.

Embodying the very spirit this pilgrimage seeks to awaken, the inspirational film Cabrini brings this mission to life. As the first American saint and patron of this pilgrimage, St. Frances Cabrini carried her faith beyond the walls of the Church and into the streets to serve those most in need, showing how one person, by saying yes to God, can transform lives and bring hope where it is needed most.

More than a century ago, Pope Leo XIII sent Cabrini to America to bring hope to those on the margins, helping shape the spiritual heart of a young nation.

Today, as the Church journeys along the St. Frances Cabrini Route of the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage, we invite you to join us for an exclusive screening of Cabrini. Please use the QR code to reserve your seat or visit our website at cabrinifilm.org.
